Project Description

Construction of an approximately 278-mile, 30-inch-diameter underground natural gas transmission pipeline connecting a Florida Gas Transmission point in Starke (Bradford County), FL to a termination point in Palm Beach County.

Approximately 265 miles of the 278-mile mainland preferred corridor are collocated with existing utility rights-of-way (ROW). Of that, nearly 245 miles of the preferred corridor are collocated with FPL's existing 230k/500kV transmission ROW.

The above map shows the preferred and secondary corridors within St. Lucie County
