

Appeal of Decision by Administrative Official Application Supplement

Refer to L.D.C. section 11.11.02 for further details

1. I (we) do hereby appeal to the St. Lucie County Board of Adjustment to reverse the following decision or action of the administrative official. (State the title of the official, and the decision made by that official, and the section from the St. Lucie County Land Development Code which is the basis for that decision.)

2. What is the original intended development or use of the subject property that was requested:

3. What is the specific reason that the decision is in error?

4. Are there other factors that were not communicated to the official?

5. Were all the proper procedures followed in the request?

6. Is there any other Section of the Land Development Code (LDC) that may supersede the basis for the decision made by the official?

7. Is there an order from a Court, Federal or State Agency requiring the intended development or use? YES NO (If yes, then order is required)

8. Provide a copy of all applications and correspondence to and from the County.
