

LIQUEFIED PETROLEUM (LP) CONTRACTOR

DESCRIPTION:

A liquefied petroleum (LP) gas contractor's scope of services are limited to the installation, maintenance, repair, alteration, or extension of liquefied petroleum gas piping, appliances, gas mains, lines, laterals, tanks, regulators, meters and other appurtenances and paraphernalia in connection therewith, including wall and central heating units and any building or structure or on any premises, public or private, as may be permitted under Section 527.01(9), (LP gas installer), Florida Statutes.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS:

All applicants for a St. Lucie County Liquefied Petroleum Gas Contractor license must pass an exam as provided for by the Florida Department of Agricultural and Consumer Services and shall meet all other applicable standards set out in Section 527.02, Florida Statutes that relate to LP Gas Installers.

APPLICATION AND REQUIRED FEES:

Applications for St. Lucie County Liquefied Petroleum Gas Contractor license must be filed with the required, non-refundable fee of $150.

STATE REGISTRATION:

State Registration is required.

STATE CERTIFICATION:

State Certification is available.